

Tips and advice from
Jean-Marc Hachey!
Author & Online Publisher of
MyWorldAbroad

Careers Strategies for International Students!

Learn the Secrets of Success from North America's Global Career Expert

Monday
Nov. 23rd

4:30 – 6:00 pm
(Brown 5001)

All are welcome!

Hosted by:

Career Planning Service (CaPS)

Supported by:

Desautels Faculty of Management Career Services

Engineering Career Centre

Faculty of Law - Career Dev.

Office International Education

Internship Offices Network

McGill University Library

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Learn how to maximize the career value of your time in Canada and look for international work when you return home!

This seminar will teach you:

- Gain professional experience in Canada while still in school
- How to sell your international skills back home
- How to build your "International IQ"
- Long-term career strategies
- Global career skills

Jean-Marc Hachey

Author & Online Publisher
MyWorldAbroad

Jean-Marc's seminars are brimming with practical tips, expert advice and humorous stories to help you go abroad and prepare for work in the new global economy.

MY WORLD ABROAD

Global career skills start here.

Students also have FREE ACCESS to MyWorldAbroad at www.MyWorldAbroad.com/mcgill